Fixed Kilometre Plan

PART

Choose a Fixed Kilometre Plan and save if you drive up to 15,000 km per year.

Choose your plan

You can choose a plan from 1,000 km to 15,000 km per year, depending on how many kilometres you think you'll drive during the period of insurance.

The number of kilometres you purchased on your plan will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance. The kilometres on your plan are valid for the whole period of insurance.

Your start odometer reading

You need to give us your start odometer reading within 14 days of your policy start date.

We will send you an updated Certificate of Insurance showing:

- the start odometer reading you gave us;
- the number of kilometres you purchased on your plan; and
- your end odometer reading, which is your start odometer reading plus the number of kilometres you purchased in the current term.

You have an obligation to tell us if the start odometer reading disclosed immediately before entry into the policy was/is inaccurate.

Top up your kilometres

If you think you'll drive more than the number of kilometres on your plan, you can top up your kilometres by giving us a call on 1300 811 224. Just keep in mind that we will also need to adjust your premium.

You can't reduce the number of kilometres you've purchased once your policy starts.

Renewal

On renewal, you can choose to increase or reduce the number of kilometres on your plan if you wish. If you change your Fixed Kilometre Plan on renewal, we will ask you to provide a new start odometer reading.

Otherwise, you can choose to buy the same number of kilometres in your renewal term.

Your responsibilities

Your premium

Your premium

Your premium is the amount of money you agree to pay us for your policy.

How much do I pay?

When you apply and we agree to provide you with cover, or we offer renewal, we will advise you of the premium amount, which we will confirm on your Certificate of Insurance.

Paying your premium

You need to make sure your premium payment is up to date. If it is not, we may cancel your policy in accordance with the law.

If any premium instalment remains unpaid for 14 days or more, we may also refuse to pay a claim.

It is important that you contact us if your bank or credit card details change. In the event of a total loss claim and where you pay your premium by instalments, we will deduct any unpaid premium for the period of insurance from the claims settlement.

How do we calculate premiums?

Your premium is calculated based on a number of criteria, such as:

- the cover you choose;
- the type of car you own;
- where you park your car overnight;

- your car's accessories or accepted modifications; and
- factors relating to the drivers of your car, such as their age and driving history.

We will also look at the value of your car, other factors that increase or decrease the risk of a claim, and factors that affect our business costs.

Minimum premiums apply which could reduce any discount you may be entitled to.

Your premium will also include amounts covering government charges, taxes or levies we are responsible for, such as GST and Stamp Duty. This information will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with us, you have a duty of disclosure.

We may ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms. If we do, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in their answer. It is important that you understand that you are answering for yourself and anyone else to whom these questions apply.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Your other responsibilities

Looking after your car

You must ensure your car is kept in good repair and you need to take all reasonable precautions to protect your car from loss or damage.

If you do not maintain and protect your car, we may decline your claim or reduce what we pay for a claim.

Notify us when things change

During the period of insurance, you must tell us of any change that may increase the chances of a claim or if any information provided by you to us is not accurate.

If you do not do this, we may refuse to pay a claim where permitted by law.

These things can include (but are not limited to):

- if your car has modifications installed that we have not agreed to;
- if you change from using your car for private use to business use;
- if you replace or sell your car; or

- if you have selected the Fixed Kilometre Plan option and the odometer reading you told us when you first applied for this cover was inaccurate. It is your responsibility to check that the start odometer reading shown on your Certificate of Insurance is correct and to notify us immediately to update the reading if it is incorrect.

Where things change we will review the policy. We may propose a variation to the policy terms or in some cases cancel the policy.

More than one insured person

If there is more than one insured named on your Certificate of Insurance we will treat a statement, act, omission, claim or request to alter or cancel your policy made by one as coming from all of those named as insured.

Paperless correspondence

We prefer to communicate with you by email or other electronic channels. However, if you do not want to receive correspondence electronically, let us know.

We will consider any policy documents we send to you electronically to have been received by you 24 hours from when we sent them.

You are responsible for making sure you provide us with your correct and up to date email address.

Making a claim

In the event of a claim it is good to understand the process so you know what to do and what to expect. Our claims team will support and guide you through the claim process.

Page 39

What to do in the event of a claim

1

Secure your car

Make sure your car is safe and secure so it will not be damaged further. This may mean having it towed.

2

Get details

You will need to get these details from anyone else involved:

- full name and address and phone,
- vehicle make, model and registration,
- insurance details and driver's licence number.

3

Report the incident

Report the incident or loss to the police if the law requires it to be reported.

4

Lodge your claim

Lodge your claim online at insuranceat60.com.

Do not

- Admit guilt, fault or liability except to the police;
- offer or negotiate to pay any claim;
- or
- approve any repairs, except essential repairs needed to minimise or prevent further loss or damage to your car.

Assessing your claim

After you have lodged a claim with us, we will assess it. When we are doing this, we may ask you for information or assistance to help with the process.

We may ask you for:

- a face-to-face or telephone interview;
- written statements under oath;
- relevant documents;
- odometer readings;
- proof of ownership of the car and any damaged or lost property, such as receipts, invoices, bank or credit card statements, contracts of sale or original photographs;
- details of any other insurance that relates to the claim.

We will require you to:

- let us see or take possession of any damaged property;
- let us or our agent inspect your car;
- send us any communication you receive about the claim from anyone else (including letters of demand and communication about court proceedings);
- do everything you can to help us to negotiate, defend or settle your claim or to recover costs from another party responsible for damaging your car.

What we pay

If you have a claim under the policy, we will decide (in our sole discretion) whether it is best to:

- repair your car;
- pay you the reasonable cost for your car to be repaired;
- replace your car;
- pay you the agreed or market value of your car (or any other limit shown on your Certificate of Insurance) if it is a total loss.

When deciding whether to repair your car or pay you the reasonable cost to repair your car, we will take into account the legislation that applies in the relevant State or Territory on whether your car is a total loss.

If your car is a total loss

The maximum amount we will pay for the total loss of your car will be based on the sum insured shown on your Certificate of Insurance, less any excess(es). If you have a market value policy, the maximum we will pay for the total loss of your car is the market value (see definition on page 59).

Insurance cover for the car will cease as soon as we accept and pay the claim.

If your car is declared a total loss, the car, along with any salvage rights will become our property. We will deduct any unexpired portion of your registration and Compulsory Third Party insurance premium from the settlement amount paid. No premium refund is due if you have paid your premium annually. If you are paying your premium monthly, we will deduct the balance of the yearly premium owing from the claim settlement.

You will need to contact us if you want to apply for new insurance cover for your replacement car.

Who pays for assessing damage?

If there are costs in assessing the damage:

- for claims we accept and approve, we cover diagnosis and reassembly costs; or
- for claims we do not accept or did not approve, you cover diagnosis and reassembly costs.

Repairs and replacements

PART

1 2

What do we guarantee?

We will only guarantee materials and workmanship on authorised repairs done by a repairer appointed or approved by us. This guarantee is for as long as you own your car and is not transferable.

Who does the repairs?

A qualified repairer appointed or approved by us will do the repairs. While you can arrange for a quote from a different repairer, we have the final say on who will do the repairs.

What might you need to pay for?

We will repair your car to the condition that it was in immediately before the event leading to the claim.

You may have to contribute to the cost of repairing or replacing items such as tyres, engines, accessories, paintwork, bodywork, radiators, batteries or interior trims that have been affected by wear and tear or rust and corrosion.

We will work out how much you may have to pay depending on the condition of the car at the time of the claim.

Repairs and replacements

PART

Replacement parts

Is the car under a manufacturer’s warranty?

Yes

We will use new Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) parts. For replacement of windscreens or window glass we might use glass which was not produced by the original manufacturer but will always meet Australian Design Rules.

No

We will use parts that are consistent with the age or condition of your car. This may include the use of non-OEM or reconditioned parts.

Damaged parts of a set

We will only pay for the replacement of the actual part(s) damaged.

Parts or accessories no longer available in Australia

If the parts or accessories are no longer available from the manufacturer or available in Australia, we will only pay the cost of an equivalent part or its last listed parts price or value. We will not pay for any unreasonable extra costs to get the parts faster, and we will not have any responsibility for losses arising from any delay in the supply of parts.

Damage to your car’s identification

If your car’s identification, such as VIN plate or label, has been damaged and we cannot source a replacement from its manufacturer we will try to get written confirmation of your car’s identity from the manufacturer. We will then repair your car without replacing any damaged identification, unless the law says we have to.

Understanding your excess

PART

1 2

An excess is the amount(s) of money you pay or must contribute towards the cost of any claim. All excess amounts relevant to your cover will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance. When an excess applies you have to pay your basic excess plus any applicable additional excess(es).

Excess types

There are different types of excesses, depending on what your claim relates to, who was driving your car and the type of cover you have chosen.

Below, we outline the different types of excesses and the situations in which they may apply. You will find the amount of each excess on your Certificate of Insurance.

Basic excess

The first amount you pay on each claim made under your policy.

The following excesses may also apply in addition to your basic excess if applicable (they will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance):

Age excess

This applies if the driver is under 25. This excess does not apply to a learner driver.

Sports Gear Cover fixed excess

This applies to all Sports Gear Cover claims instead of the basic excess.

Undeclared young driver excess

This applies if the driver is under 25 and has not been declared as a driver on your Certificate of Insurance.

This excess does not apply to a learner driver.

Learner driver excess

This applies if the driver is a learner driver.

Inexperienced driver excess

This applies if the driver is 25 years of age or over and has not held a driver's licence that is valid in Australia (excluding learner's licences and permits) for more than 2 consecutive years.

Fixed Kilometre Plan additional excess

This excess only applies if the Fixed Kilometre Plan additional excess is shown on your Certificate of Insurance, and at the time of a claim your odometer reading is either below your start odometer or above your end odometer as set out on your Certificate of Insurance.

Special excess

This excess will only be applied if shown on your Certificate of Insurance and may be based on things such as the car, its use, your driving record, or the insurance history of the drivers of your car.

Understanding your excess

An excess is the amount(s) of money you pay or must contribute towards the cost of any claim. All excess amounts relevant to your cover will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance. When an excess applies you have to pay your basic excess plus any applicable additional excess(es).

When do you pay your excess(es)?

We will ask you to pay your excess(es):

- to the repairer when you pick up your car; or
- directly to us when we request it. Alternatively, we may deduct the excess(es) from the amount we agree to pay you.

When won't you have to pay your excess(es)?

You will not have to pay an excess if:

- the damage to your car was caused by another car, we agree that you did not contribute or were not at fault, and you can identify the other car and provide its registration number and the driver or owner's name and address;
- the damage to your car did not involve another car and we agree that you are not at fault in any way and you are able to identify the responsible party who is legally liable and provide their name and home or business address; or
- you have taken the optional Excess-Free Kangaroo Damage Optional Cover and you are making a claim for your first animal collision in any one period of insurance.

- you have taken the optional Excess-Free Windscreen Cover and you are only claiming for the damage or breakage of your windscreen.

For claims involving fire, theft and malicious damage, broken windscreen or damage sustained while your car is parked, the following excesses will not apply:

- Age;
- Undeclared young driver;
- Learner driver;
- Inexperienced driver.

However, all other applicable excesses apply.

Cancelling your policy

Page 47

If you have a complaint

Changing your cover

We understand that your circumstances may change. That is why we need you to contact us promptly to apply to amend cover during the period of insurance.

You need to tell us immediately if:

- any details on your Certificate of Insurance are no longer accurate;
- your address or other contact details change;
- you replace your car;
- there are any changes to the physical condition of your car;
- you plan to, or have, added accessories or modifications to your car.

It is important to note that if you make a request to amend your cover this may affect your premium. Any proposed changes to your cover will be subject to acceptance at our absolute discretion.

Renewing your policy

1

To ensure continuing protection we will normally send you a renewal offer at least 14 days prior to the renewal date of the policy. It will set out information such as the new premium and excess for the new period, information you have previously told us and may also include notice of any proposed changes to the terms of the policy to be renewed.

2

Where you receive a renewal offer, you must tell us if the information contained in it is incorrect or incomplete and you must comply with your 'Duty of Disclosure' (see page 34).

If you do not, we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or cancel the renewed policy.

3

If nothing needs to be disclosed and you are happy with the renewal offer, you do not have to do anything as we will automatically renew on those terms and deduct/charge the new renewal premium from your nominated card.

Should you not wish to take up the renewal offer, you must contact us prior to the renewal to advise us.

If we do not offer to renew your policy, we will send you a notice telling you this.

If you have an agreed value policy, we will review your sum insured as part of your renewal offer. The updated amount will be stated on the renewal we send you. This PDS (together with any amendments, updates or endorsements) also applies for any offer of renewal we make, unless we tell you otherwise or issue you with a new updated PDS or Supplementary PDS amending the PDS terms.

Each renewal is a separate policy, not an extension of the prior policy. Your cooling off period will apply on each renewal.

Cancelling your policy

If you want to cancel

You may cancel your policy at any time by contacting us. We may charge you the cancellation fee specified in the Certificate of Insurance to cover the administration costs if you cancel after your cooling off period.

If you paid an annual premium, we will refund the full amount, less:

- the amount covering the period you were insured for; and
- government or statutory charges we are unable to recover.

If you pay your premium by monthly instalments we will not provide a refund.

When we may cancel your policy

We may cancel your policy where permitted by and in accordance with the law. For example, if you:

- do not comply with the policy terms and conditions; or
- do not pay your premium as agreed; or
- make a fraudulent claim; or
- did not comply with your Duty of Disclosure; or
- misrepresented information when you entered into your policy.

If we pay a claim for a total loss, your policy comes to an end and there is no refund of premium.

If you have a complaint

We hope that you never have a complaint, but if you do we will do our best to work with you to resolve it through the following process:

Our internal complaints process

Please follow our step-by-step process, which is part of our complaint and dispute resolution procedure.

1

Get in touch with one of our customer service consultants about your concerns, and they'll do their best to resolve them. When you make your complaint please provide as much information as possible. Our aim is to resolve all complaints as soon as possible, however where we can't resolve your concern immediately we will resolve it within 15 business days.

Call us on 1300 431 288 or email help@insuranceat60.com

If we haven't responded to your complaint within 15 business days, or if you're not satisfied with how we've tried to resolve it, you can ask for your complaint to be escalated for an Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) review by a Dispute Resolution Specialist.

The Dispute Resolution Specialist will provide in writing our final decision within 15 business days of your complaint being escalated, unless they've requested an extension from you and you've agreed to give us more time.

If you're not happy with the final decision, or if we've taken more than 45 days to respond to you from the date you first made your complaint, you may contact the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) at:

Phone: 1800 931 678 Post: GPO Box 3 Melbourne VIC 3001

However, we will reconsider your claim if we are satisfied that you had no reason to suspect that the driver of your car was not licensed to drive your car or was affected by alcohol or any drug. If we do settle the claim, we may decide to recover what we have paid from the person who was driving or in charge of your car when the accident happened.

How we protect your privacy

We will at various times or stages during our communication with you collect some of your personal information.

We collect personal information to provide, offer and administer our various products and services, or otherwise as permitted by law.

Your consent applies when you apply for insurance, or become or remain the insured. You can read more about how we collect, use and disclose your personal information or our complaints process about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles in our Privacy Policy which is available on our website or you can request a free copy. If you wish to update or gain access to your personal information or have a complaint about a breach of your privacy contact us (our contact details are provided in this PDS).

Claim payments and Goods & Services Tax (GST)

Any claim payments made under this policy will be based on GST inclusive costs, up to the relevant amount covered, or maximum amount that we pay. However, if you are, or would be, entitled to claim any input tax credit for the repair or replacement of insured property or for other things covered, we will reduce any claim under the insurance by the amount of such input tax credit.

You are required to tell us your entitlement to an input tax credit. If you fail to disclose or understate your entitlement, you may be liable for GST on a claim we pay.

Financial Claims Scheme

Hollard is authorised under the Insurance Act 1973 to carry on general insurance business.

This Act contains prudential standards and practices to ensure that financial promises made by Hollard are met. Because of this, Hollard is exempted from the requirement to meet the compensation arrangements Australian Financial Services Licensees must have in place to compensate clients for loss or damage suffered because of breaches by Hollard or its representatives.

The protection provided under the Federal Government's Financial Claims Scheme applies to Hollard. If Hollard is unable to meet its financial obligations a person may be entitled to payment under this Scheme. Information about this Scheme can be obtained from the APRA website at fcs.gov.au or their hotline on 1300 55 88 49.

The General Insurance Code of Practice

The Insurance Council of Australia Limited has developed the General Insurance Code of Practice, which is a self-regulatory code for use by all insurers. The Code aims to raise the standards of practice and service in the insurance industry. Hollard is a signatory to the Code.

You can obtain a copy of the Code from the Insurance Council of Australia website at insurancecouncil.com.au or by phoning (02) 9253 5100.

Updating this PDS

If we change anything about this insurance in the future, the PDS may also change. If the change is relatively small and will not affect your decision to buy or renew this cover, we will list the details at insuranceat60.com. If we make a substantial update to the product, we will send you a new PDS or Supplementary PDS, explaining the changes we have made.

Open acts under a binder agreement with Hollard to issue, vary or dispose of this insurance and administer and settle claims of this insurance, which means that it can do these things as if it were Hollard. This means that, together, Insurance at 60 and Open are acting for and represent Hollard and not you.

Hollard also owns a significant shareholding in Open.

Payments and benefits we receive

The premium for this Insurance at 60 Car Insurance policy is payable to Hollard as the insurer.

Open receives a commission from Hollard for each Insurance at 60 Car Insurance policy sold of up to:

- 25% of the gross insurance premium you pay when you purchase the policy; or
- 15% of the proportion of gross insurance premium that is recognised as income in any given month.

This commission is included in the cost of the insurance products. We do not receive commission on taxes or government charges.

Open retains a fee of 15% of this commission amount and passes the rest on to Insurance at 60.

For example, if the commission paid by Hollard is 20%, Open retains 15% x 20 %, or 3%, and passes the remaining 17% to Insurance at 60.

Open is also remunerated by Hollard for providing services on Hollard’s behalf in relation to this policy, like sales, policy administration and servicing, up to 10% of the total premium you pay.

Open receives 50% of the Underwriting Profit derived by Hollard in respect of Car Insurance policies it sells and manages on Hollard’s behalf. Underwriting Profit is calculated in any given year by adding all of the premiums received in that year and deducting the amount of all claims and administration costs incurred during that same year.

Both Insurance at 60 and Open employees receive a salary. They may be eligible for an annual performance payment or retention incentives which are discretionary and based on reaching agreed performance levels.

You may request further particulars of these payments but your request must be made within a reasonable time after you receive this FSG and before we provide any financial service to you.
